Dear Dave,

8/25/84

Bruce McKinney spent 2 1/2-3 hours here today. He impressed me favorably. He does not appear to be afraid of the subject matter. Neither does his adviser, from his account. He was receptive to suggestions.

One of my suggestions is that he go over the FBIHQ Commission liaison file for, at the minimu, Ford records. I showed him some.

He'll be back in October for that.

He took a copy of the 11/25/63 Katzenbach to Moyer memo to show his adviser.

I suggested that he set the stage with a reflection of the character of the non-investigation, basing it on original records, and he liked that idea. I also suggested that he make maximum possible use of original records in general.

He'll need copies of the executive sessions he doesn't have. I suggested that he see if you have them and I tild him that if you do not I'd just have to volunteer Lil's services at the copier.

He has some support from a teaching assignment.

Best,
